

Call for Poster Presentations for the 2023 GKCPA Fall Conference
Saturday, September 23

Poster Topics

Any poster presentation that interests clinical psychologists and the practice of psychology is appropriate for committee review. The poster session is an informal format for presenting your research data, literature review, de-identified case studies, theoretical topic, or highlights of innovative practices will be considered. Past posters are appropriate to submit.

Proposal Submission Requirements

Those interested must submit a (a) 6-12 word title, (b) a 75-200 word abstract of their presentation, (c) 3 measurable learning objectives and corresponding peer-reviewed references, (d) a brief professional bio that includes your specialty areas of training and experience with diversity of the first author (e) names and credentials of additional contributors to the research and (f) 2-5 key words describing your poster.

In order to present, you must be in person and register for the conference.

Call for posters opens July 1, 2023.

Call for posters ends September 8, 2023.

Acceptance Notifications will be sent on September 12, 2023.

Submission of pdf of poster required September 18, 2023.

Evaluation Criteria

Proposals are evaluated based on the quality of the submission and the degree of practitioner focus. All posters will be submitted via email to asickel@kansascity.edu and will be evaluated by the GKCPA Programming Committee. Please submit a Word document with the requested information above and the email subject: GKCPA Fall Conference Poster Proposal.

Poster Requirements

Your poster should include essential information and be printed on a large single sheet of paper. FedEx Office, Staples, or other printing businesses can typically print from a PowerPoint file. Presenters must stand by their poster Saturday, September 23, to answer questions and interact with attendees. Disclosure: accepted posters must acknowledge financial support or assistance for the research at the time of presentation. You must disclose any use of products at the time of presentation. Handouts should be non-promotional/non-commercial and not include brand/proprietary drug names or commercial logos/names. Presenters are responsible for the transporting and hanging of the poster. Materials will be provided to hang the poster appropriately.